This screenshot shows the Zoom interface with a blue bar at the top containing 'Back' and 'Preview'. A speaker icon is on the left. The main content area has a black header with 'RECEPTIVE VOCABULARY' and 'choose a category below to get started!'. Below are six light blue buttons: 'body parts', 'clothing', 'household items', 'food', 'toys', and 'occupation'. A large black arrow points from the 'body parts' button to a white text box containing the instruction 'Tap anywhere on your screen and a pen in a blue circle will appear.' At the bottom left, a blue circle with a white pen icon is highlighted, with a 'Feedback' button next to it. The bottom status bar shows 'Jessica Matiya's screen'.

This screenshot is similar to the first one but shows the annotation toolbar at the bottom. The white text box now contains the instruction 'Tap on that icon and these annotate options will appear.' The toolbar includes icons for Pen, Highlighter, Line, Arrow, Rectangle, Oval, Text, Color, Eraser, Undo, Redo, and Clear. The 'Pen' icon is highlighted with a blue circle. The rest of the interface, including the 'RECEPTIVE VOCABULARY' header and category buttons, remains the same.
